Welcome to Willow Springs worship this morning!

The plastic bank passed during the offering time is for coins (50 cents or so). This symbolizes our desire to combat world hunger. Proceeds are divided between the local food pantry and MCC hunger projects.

If you are not participating in a Sunday school class this morning, consider helping to take down and put away the Advent/Christmas decorations for the season.

Tomorrow Willow Springs is responsible for the Our Table meal at the Methodist Church in Princeton. If you have signed up to help with meal preparation, be there at 2 pm. Please have any food donations there by 4:30.

Opportunity to help: Jim and Meg Foxvog plan to move many of their belongings to their house (the former Plow Creek "town house") in Tiskilwa on Tuesday, January 30. Help would be appreciated. Please contact Dennis Zehr if you are able to be there.

Kids Klub: Wednesday, January 31, 6 pm at the Tiskilwa Bible Church. Activities for children K-8th grade.

Mennonite Women gathering, Thursday, February 1, beginning at 9:30 am in the church basement. Come and go as you can.

Plan for an all-church road trip: The Licensing to Ministry for Jacob Landis is planned for Sunday morning, February 18, 10:30 at Science Ridge Mennonite Church in Sterling. A carry-in meal will follow. (This will include four congregations--Willow Springs, Community Mennonite, Science Ridge, and Freeport—all of which have played a role in Jacob's faith journey.) There will be NO worship service in the Willow Springs building on February 18.

New Everence/Stewardship advocate: Marilyn Eigsti is concluding her time of service in this role. Sheena Johnson is the new advocate.
