Doris Alice Bachman of rural Putnam, Illinois passed away on June 23, 2024 at Liberty Village in Princeton, Illinois. She was born December 5, 1925 in Tiskilwa, Illinois to Jesse and Alice(Bachman) Schrock. She married Allan Bachman on February 20, 1947. He passed away on May 21, 2008. She was preceded in death by her parents, one brother, Allen Schrock, one twin sister, Dorothy Alice Shank and one infant daughter, Louise Ilene.

Surviving are two sons and daughter in laws, Dale (Elaine Good) Bachman of Putnam, Illinois and Dean (Beth Gerig) of Tiskilwa Illinois and one daughter and son in law, Marlene (David) Beachy of Paoli, Indiana, six grandchildren and six great grandchildren. She was a member of Willow Springs Mennonite Church of Tiskilwa, Illinois, a Sunday School teacher for over 20 years, helped with Bible School, was a member of Willow Springs Mennonite Woman and served as their Secretary-Treasurer for nine years.

She was a member of Gideons International since 1973, and Served various offices. She was a past member of the Marshal-Putnam Homemakers Extension Association of Henry for many Years. She enjoyed crocheting afghans, doilies, thousands of scrubbies and other items, making quilts and playing cards. She moved from the family farm to Greenfield Retirement center In 2017. She especially loved babies and children, and throughout the years has been a steady example of Christian faith. She grew old with grace and joy and each day would pray, "The Lord is ever present with me and gives me grace, joy and peace in all my situations for which I am ever grateful." We are blessed to have had her as our mother, mother in law, grandmother and great grandmother. We will miss her deeply.
